IF THIS REQUEST GRANTED, WHY WORK FOR LIVING?

Demands of United Front committee of "Crows' Nest Pass" include the heading of "Immediate"—$15 weekly for married couples, with $2 for each dependent; single unemployed men and women $10, to be paid in cash.

Relief work, it is demanded, shall be paid for at trade union wages, with a minimum of 50¢ per hour, and there shall be no discrimination on account of nationality, religious or political opinions. The only justification required for relief shall be that the worker is unemployed.

Free transportation to and from work, free light, water and fuel, adequate winter clothing free, no evictions for non-payment of rent, no sales of property for non-payment of taxes, free medical and dental services, school children to be provided with hot lunches at noon, are some of the demands under the classification of "immediate."

For partially employed workers the minimum scale of subsistence in these demands is to be made up by the employees and the state, and unemployed councils shall be represented on all bodies administering relief, and the R.C.M.P. and all other police officials shall be removed from such bodies.

Regarding work camps, it is demanded that the slave camps for single unemployed workers be closed, that all such work shall be carried on voluntarily without coercion, and that a minimum of 50¢ an hour shall be paid and decent conditions prevail.

In order to gain these demands, the manifesto states, unemployed councils have been set up at Coleman, Blairmore, Frank, Bellevue and Hillcrest, which places sent delegates to a central council of unemployed for the "Crows' Pass."

The manifesto is signed by "Crows' Nest Pass Central Council of Unemployed," but does not bear the name of any officers. Coleman Correspondent to Lethbridge Herald.

The Pendulum Swings.

Conditions through which all peoples and nations are presently passing are a testing time of individual character, of community thought and activity, of national stability. Present conditions constitute a yardstick by which we measure the real outlook upon life and a means whereby to gauge one's inner conception of what truly constitutes life. Is life solely a material existence in which things material are first importance? Or is life something far greater and higher, with material things merely necessary adjuncts to our physical well-being in order that the better, finer things of life may be developed and enjoyed?

For the time being the world lies wounded and bleeding at the bottom of a chain of financial and economic depression. All mankind is suffering. Are we, therefore, to turn and rend each other like animals; allow the purely destructive elements in our nature to have full sway over us, and lash out bodily? Or is this the time when man, upon his spiritual plane, should stand by for our trouble, tear down what we ourselves, in our calmer, more thoughtful moments, and our predecessors throughout the ages of the past, have erected? And, if we do so, and complete the work of destruction, will we then be better equipped, more efficient, to meet the coming crisis?

Three years ago the pendulum of the world was in the wave of a so-called prosperity. Everybody was engaged in scaling the heights. Having reached the apex of its swing, the pendulum had, by all the laws of nature, to swing back, and having swung so far to the right it had, of necessity, to swing just as far to the left. It took some years to reach the 1928-29 low, with another two years to attain such a high, though temporary, level. It is not the pendulum itself that is wrong, but the human forces which carried it to one extreme but, having carried it there, are now powerless to prevent its backward swing.

In a short time the madness of the Great War, the nations piled up impossible huge mountains of debt. While war passions were still uppermost, and most countries lying prostrate, public opinion in the victorious nations looking about for means of recouping the losses forced upon them, to bring just as far to the right. It took some years to reach the 1928-29 low, with another two years to attain such a high, though temporary, level. It is not the pendulum itself that is wrong, but the human forces which carried it to one extreme but, having carried it there, are now powerless to prevent its backward swing.

In the so-called normal period of the Great War, the world was engaged in a few years of great prosperity. Everybody was in the wave of a so-called prosperity. Everybody was engaged in scaling the heights. Having reached the apex of its swing, the pendulum had, by all the laws of nature, to swing back, and having swung so far to the right it had, of necessity, to swing just as far to the left. It took some years to reach the 1928-29 low, with another two years to attain such a high, though temporary, level. It is not the pendulum itself that is wrong, but the human forces which carried it to one extreme but, having carried it there, are now powerless to prevent its backward swing.

They refuse to see that they are themselves in any sense responsible; they only did what everybody else was doing. So they say it is "the system" that is to blame; therefore, destroy the system and create a new one. The system, however, is not to blame; it is saved from "themselves, from their own impulses, from their own selfish desires. But people cannot be saved from their "mistakes," or prevented from making mistakes unless they are to be treated and governed as immature children. And who are the immature children? The people who, instead of thus disciplining humanity, shall be given? Granted, the "system" calls for change—and, like everything else in this changing world, the "system" is changing, changing rapidly as a result of the experiences of the past, and the general knowledge of the world. The "system" is changing, changing its theories in government, in finance, in the whole complicated world of economics, including all production, distribution, exchange, whether within a given country, or throughout the world, experienced with?

Would it be wise at this time, in so much confusion, of thought, of vague values, of so many who are not capable of clear, sane vision, with which they are usually endowed, when because of their worries they are naturally inclined to strike out blindly, to destroy and abandon as so much junk all those policies and institutions which only four or five years ago they approved and supported? Because the pendulum, it's backward swing, is now in full force, it is to be expected that the human forces, inevitably, begin to swing again to the right. Is that any reason to attempt to tear it from its moorings and seek to establish some new order which would defy the laws of gravity and momentum?

It is a period of a world of uncertainty, of a world of fear, of a world of

TARIFF CHANGES MEET OPPOSITION OF WESTERNERS

Ottawa, Ont.—The House of Commons became entangled on barbed wire today and only 11 tariff changes resulting from the Anglo-Canadian trade treaty were passed in the short session.

A 10 per cent. tariff against foreign barbed wire aroused the ire of western Liberals and Progressives. They charged it would boost prices to much-harassed farmers at a time when efforts should be focused on reducing production costs.

Canadian and Dutch manufacturers of barbed wire, said Premier R. B. Bennett, "have resolved to destroy the Canadian industry, dumping large quantities in this country, depressing prices." The tariff increase was designed to curb the dumping, giving Canadian manufacturers reasonable protection. He doubted if there would be any material increase in prices.

Finally, the wire item passed but another obstacle lay ahead, 25 per cent. tariff against foreign cream separators drew more fire than the barbed wire in a much shorter period of time. Once again opposition members said the tariff increases would raise prices to the farmers.

The United Kingdom would continue to have free entry for cream separators, said Hon. Harry Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce. Manufacturers in that country had assured him they could supply the Canadian market without increasing prices.

Hazardous Flights

United States To Keep Closer Supervision on Foolhardy Airmen

Washington—Adventurous United States airmen planning hazardous flights to foreign lands will have to pass strict government scrutiny in the future and may be denied permission if the undertaking seems too risky.

The aeronautics branch of the United States Department of Commerce serves notice today that it will exercise closer supervision over preparations for such flights by citizens than it has in the past.

Death of Major Sifton

Secretary-Treasurer of Winnipeg Free Press Passes on Toronto

Toronto, Ont.—John Wright Sifton, secretary-treasurer of the Winnipeg Free Press, died November 15.

Mr. Sifton, who was 46 years old, had lived in Toronto for some time following a long holiday in the southern United States. He died after a long illness, although his condition did not become critical until a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Sifton, who was formerly Miss Grace Christine Bell, Montreal, survived.

For Armament Reduction

London, Eng.—Great Britain wants reduction of armaments by land, sea and air. Sir John Simon, secretary for foreign affairs, by a declaration before the Bureau of Disarmament Conference at Geneva, and the British Government in the form of a white paper tabled in the House of Commons today, laid down the main lines of British disarmament policy.

Loan Is Subscribed

Montreal, Que.—Beyond confirming the statement by Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, that the new Dominion loan of $30,000,000 had been fully subscribed, the central campaign committee here had no information to offer. Until all the applications had been totalled up it would not be possible to state the extent of the over-subscription.

No Stigma Attached To Relief

Calgary, Alta.—Declaring no stigma could be attached to those in need of relief through misfortune, the annual convention of the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts rejected a resolution urging "that each municipality establish a paupers' fund from which relief payments would be made."

May Re-Open Coast Smelters

Victoria, B.C.—Possibility of reopening the Ladymount smelter to handle the copper ores from the British mines on Howe Sound, so as to enable those mines to come in under the British preference and continue operating, was under discussion by members of the government.

New Duties Now Effective

Ottawa Trade Agreements Now Law in Britain

London, Eng.—The Ottawa agreements will implementing the United Kingdom's new trade pacts with the Dominions has become law. New duties set out in the bill became effective at midnight, November 16, replacing those of the Import Duties Act passed last year.

The bill was given third reading by the House of Lords and immediately afterwards obtained royal assent by commission.

Meanwhile a treasury order was issued extending, without interrupting, general empire preferences and special tariffs imposed under the Import Duties Act. Another order made the Ottawa preferences effective. Had no agreements been reached at Ottawa the preference would have lapsed November 15.

The treasury order continued preferences on goods from all countries of the British Empire with the exception of the Irish Free State, which failed to conclude an agreement with the United Kingdom at Ottawa.

Remaining provisions of the Ottawa Agreements Act, brought into force at once, concern powers and duties of the treasury and of trade which require no immediate action.

Members of Parliament Falter in Reams of Higher Mathematics

Ottawa, Ont.—Staid members of parliament reached for pencils and scratch paper when discussing changes in the Canadian tariff resulting from the Anglo-Canadian trade treaty.

Liberal were in a most inquisitive mood, wanting to know to what levels the exchange dumping duties, excise duties and sales tax would elevate tariff items specified in the agreement. E. J. Young (Lab., Weyburn), and ardent free-trader, said a 20 per cent. tariff against British-made kitchenware became 47 per cent. when the extra imposts were added. United States kitchenware paid 30 per cent.

Pencils and paper appeared on the desks. Members began involved calculations, most of them giving in disgust when the realms of higher mathematics were reached.

Youths To Be Spanked

Attorney-General Makes Punishment Fit the Crime

Victoria, B.C.—British Columbians who think it is smart to drink in beer parlors will be punished by the good old-fashioned method used by fathers of the last generation in the woodshed.

They will be spanked in the place provided by nature for such correction, under arrangements instituted by the attorney-general's department.

This interesting new punishment, designed to chastise boys without compelling them with criminals in jail, was devised by Attorney-General R. H. Pooley when he was called on to review the case of two Kamloops youngsters. They were convicted of taking a pair of girls to the town of Chase and drinking beer in a beer parlor there, although they were minors and not entitled to enter such premises.

Unemployed Spectre

300,000 Men, Women and Children Receiving Relief In Canada

Ottawa, Ont.—Canada has 800,000 men, women and children receiving relief, Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Labor, announced in the House of Commons.

Of the total number mentioned, said Mr. Gordon, it was estimated that 144,000 were people who had not worked very steadily since 1919. Another 100,000 were what were known as transients, 80 per cent. of whom were recent arrivals in Canada.

Grain Shipped Through Maritimes

Saint John, N.B.—A million bushels of grain are moving eastward for shipment through this port early in December. It has already been purchased for shipment via Saint John, it was announced by Harbor Commissioner Thomas Nagle on his return from Montreal, where he interviewed railway and steamship officials and some of the leading shippers.

Favors Longer Hours

Montreal, Que.—Longer working hours—a 12 or 14-hour day of labor—were suggested by Beaupre Damers' Association and General Manager of La Banque Canadienne Nationale, addressing the Purchasing Agents' Association here.

Thief Drops Loot

Jewelry Taken From Residence Is Recovered

Vancouver, B.C.—"Was my face red?" the thief probably remarked as he told of his night's venture.

He made a clean get-away with $1,900 worth of jewelry from the home of Mrs. G. M. Hughey, taking the dresser drawer in which it was concealed. He cross-countryed backyards and hurdled fences until in the safety of his hide-out he looked to goat again over his loot.

The drawer was empty.

The denouement came Wednesday when the jewelry was found in an adjoining yard from the home from which it was stolen. The thief had dropped it as he carefully guarded the worthless drawer in the course of his post-Olympic effort.

Curling commenced at Macleod on November the 16th, with ice in splendid condition.

New Canadian postage stamps of 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8 and 12-cent denominations will be available on December the 1st. It is announced from Ottawa.

George, young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Frederickson, Frank, had the misfortune to fall on the ice near his home on Sunday last, severely fracturing the leg bone near the hip. He was removed to the local hospital for X-ray examination and treatment and is reported doing nicely.

On account of an infection, Herb G. McCrea, editor of the Hanna Herald and secretary of the Alberta Branch of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, had to have one of his arms amputated at the elbow. The operation, we are informed, was performed in the Hanna municipal hospital.

Running affairs: It would be very interesting to know just to what limit some would reach if given the opportunity. Recently, a deputation, purporting to represent the unemployed, attended a meeting of the local town council, and more than once during their presence did they attempt to run the show. Twice it was noted that the deputation's spokesman, W. Knight, called for the "Next Order of Business, Please?"

W. H. DeLong, well known to Pass merchants as traveller for Western Grocers fruit department, Lethbridge, had a narrow escape yesterday afternoon when passing through Spring Coule. He lost control of his car on the icy street. It hit the ditch in front of a garage, then jumped and hit the front of the community hall, badly wrecking the front end of the car and the entry to the hall. He received only a few minor bruises.

"More consideration must be given to the spiritual side of life and the general good of humanity if the world is ever to come out of the existing depression," is the opinion of Hon. W. F. Jackson, of Fort Scott, Kansas, grand sire of the sovereign grand lodge, I.O.O.F., who last week visited Western Canada. "The kind of prosperity which leaves half the country rolling in wealth and the other half starving is not worth trying to re-establish. Men must cease trying to pile up wealth at the expense of the other fellow, and work for the good of the community," the visitor declared to newspaper men.

It is worth noting at this time that the Independent Order of Oddfellows expended no less a sum than $6,942,500.00 in relief during the year 1931 throughout the world, and since the year 1830 the enormous and almost unbelievable sum of $251,663,817.00. At the recent annual session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge at Denver, Colorado, W. F. Jackson, of Fort Scott, Kansas, who last week visited Alberta, was elected grand sire. Alberta was represented at this convention by W. J. Huntingford, special representative of the Alberta Oddfellow, official organ of the Order in Alberta; Mrs. Huntingford, conductor of the Alberta Rebekah Assembly, and Dave Wilson, grand scribe of the Grand Encampment of Alberta. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Morden, of Lethbridge, were also in attendance, with a degree team of Rebekah sisters. Among others present were A. C. Woodward, of Edmonton; W. Northcaver, of Calgary; J. H. Ross, of Calgary and D. F. Christie. The 1933 session will be held at Springfield, Illinois.

LIQUOR PRICES TUMBLE

Alberta liquor prices took a tumble on Wednesday of last week. New price lists show reductions have been distributed to vendor stores in all parts of the province, under instructions of R. J. Dinning, chairman of the liquor control board. The cuts affect a large proportion of the beers; on 5-cent bottles ranging from 35 cents on a 10-ounce bottle to 40 cents on a 10-ounce bottle. Rye whiskey will be from ten to forty cents cheaper, rum from 5 to 25 cents a quart less, while imported gin is down from 50 to 60 cents a bottle. Reduction in liquors ranges from 65 to 80 cents, while imported beer and stout is down five cents a pint.

These price revisions are due to the lowered duties resulting from the imperial conference agreements with the Old Country, and also to the reductions in excise taxes in Canada.

Gordon McTeer, of Trail, and George McTeer, of Montreal, travelled to Calgary owing to the seriousness of their father, Archibald McTeer, head of the Sun Life Assurance Company in Alberta.

General superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railways' Alberta district for the past four years, Andrew Hallett will go to Winnipeg on December the 1st, to assume the office of superintendent of the Manitoba district. W. A. Ma her, Saskatchewan district superintendent, becomes Alberta superintendent. Mr. Cotterell, of Winnipeg, becomes Saskatchewan superintendent. In 1899 he was appointed agent and operator at Crows' Nest.

Dr. John A. Allen, president of the Canadian Institute of Mining & Metallurgy, accompanied by E. J. Carlyle, secretary-treasurer, who are enroute to the general annual western meeting at Vancouver, will arrive here from Calgary tomorrow morning, and will likely spend the day in the mining camps of this district. From here they will proceed to Kimberley and Trail. B. L. Thorne, of Calgary, secretary of the Rocky Mountain branch of the institute, will likely accompany them to Blairmore.

This is the season of "northwesters" on the Great Lakes, and already the end of navigation is in sight. Within a few days, a start will be made on the withdrawing of navigation aids in the upper lakes, and they will gradually disappear until the losing of navigation on December 15th will bring in the lightkeeper from their lonely stations along the rocky shores of Lake Superior. Lighted buoys and other floating aids on the Canadian side, in Lake Superior, will be kept in operation as long as ice conditions permit, and in case where the removal of lighted buoy is necessary before the close of navigation the more important station will be marked by stars.

A decidedly pleasant time and one happily reminiscent of 44 years ago was enacted at Bass River on Halton.

The old boys and girls were named Mrs. James Ross Fulton at her home. There was a knock.

Mrs. Fulton opened the front door expecting to see some children dressed up in masks, high hats, white gowns, blowing horns, etc.

Instead of that she saw a great big man.

She cast her eyes around and she saw more big men and a number of full grown women. They lined up and marched into her home. In a few minutes she was carried back to the old school house, where as Miss Jemima Rutherford she had presided at the desk. The boys and girls were all there in front of her. They were members of the class of 1888. In the party were Mrs. Gordon Davidson, (neé Annie Lank), Mrs. Scott Fulton, (neé Carrie Knight), Mrs. Charles Ed. McLellan, (neé Ethel McNeil), Mrs.

James S. Creelman, (neé Bertha Fulton), Freeman Lank, Miss Kate Hemmings, Miss Clark, B. Lewis, former pupils of Bass River, and H. S. Creelman and Miss Clara B. Lewis, former pupils of Little Bass River—Truro Weekly News.

THE CHURCHES AND

CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP

If the churches in Blairmore did nothing more than that which they're doing directly or indirectly for youth of the community there could be sufficient justification for their existence. We are today in Blairmore facing a counter-move of the part of those who disagree with us as to the method whereby a New Social Order may be brought in. Believing in their cause, they are devoting time and energy to educating children and young people in these principles which are the foundation of their cause. Unfortunately, there are to be found many people who, while deplored the teaching which is going out from these classes, are nevertheless unsympathetic or indifferent and in some cases hostile to the churches. They do not seem to realize that, apart from the home training, the churches are today the only agencies existing for the purpose of guiding the leisure hours of our youth along right channels, which will lead to the highest type of Canadian citizenship. The school can do this task only indirectly, since it is already confronted by an over-loaded curriculum, and besides, does not have supervision of the child's time out of school.

It is true that we have in the Pass today well organized troops of Boy Scouts and Girl Guides. These groups are non-denominational and non-sectarian and are doing splendid work under efficient leadership. This movement is worthy of the support which the citizens of the Crows' Nest Pass are able to give it. But it must be borne in mind that, with a few exceptions, it is the people who are active in the affairs of the churches who for the most part are making the Scout and Girl Guide movement possible. Without the support of church leaders, Roman, Catholic and non-Catholic this movement would not be successful. And those who would regard the church as an outworn institution whose usefulness has passed will do well to remember this.

In the United Church of Canada we have for years promoted the Canadian Girls in Training, the Trail Ranger and Tusia Groups. It is the aim of the programme to build young Canadians intellectually, physically, spiritually and socially. Statistics are available to prove that in few cases do those children and young people appear before the courts who have received their training in the various organizations directed or fostered by the various churches. The only way to combat teaching which is both atheistic and revolutionary is to give your moral support to these institutions which are seeking to build Canadian Citizenship along positive constructive lines. Negative criticism of either Communism or the Church is never helpful. Unless we are prepared to offer a better way we had better keep quiet. The churches have undertaken a positive task in the belief that education along the right lines is the most effective in

Think it over and then ask yourself, "How do these facts affect my attitude toward the church?"

TECHNICAL EDUCATION

ACT MEETING DELAYED

OTTAWA, Oct. 19.—"Some delay has been incurred in bringing the

Vocational and Technical Education

Act into effect, by means of the fact that the necessary regulations governing the act are still under consideration by the Government," reads the communication explaining the status of this legislation from Hon.

W. A. Gordon, Minister of Labor, tabled in the House of Commons today. The letter was dated last

March, and was in answer to protests from the Alberta School Trustees' Association against the delay in giving effect to this 1931 legislation.

The correspondence tabled today disclosed that last September, the Labor Department communicated with the various ministers of education throughout Canada, advising them that "after careful consideration by the government it has been decided to postpone the operation of the Act until such time as economic conditions of the country warrant expenditures being made in connection with the work to be promoted under the terms of the Act."

The Labor officials emphasized the government's purpose not to make the Act retroactive.

The Act, which was passed in the 1931 session, appropriated $750,000 a year for 15 years to be distributed among the provinces for the promotion of vocational and technical education.—Toronto Mail and Empire

ALBERTA HAS DEFICIT
OVER OF $5,000,000

Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 22.—Due to shrinkage of revenue below the figures estimated by the government, Alberta provincial financing for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1932, shows a deficit of $5,153,050 as against a deficit of $2,306,581 for the previous fiscal year, 1930-1931.

Revenue for the year, which had been estimated at $18,441,457 actually yielded $13,492,430, a shrinkage of nearly five millions. On the other hand, expenses represented a saving on the estimates. They had been estimated at $18,825,798, but were cut to $18,645,481, or less than the authorized estimate by $183,217. Hon. H. G. Reid, provincial treasurer, in releasing the public accounts Tuesday morning, said that they reflect the prevailing financial situation during the year, the revenue of the province having shrunk in accordance with the abnormal conditions that all provinces and countries have faced in the past two years. From 1929 to 1930, he pointed out, Alberta reported substantial surpluses.

The return of normal conditions, said the treasurer, "should, with the existing taxation structure of the province, enable Alberta to face the future with confidence. The deficit for 1931-32 is admittedly a large one, but without attempting to minimize it, we may point out that steps taken at the last session of the legislature to reduce expenditures and increase revenue have already resulted in a considerable improvement for the first half of the present fiscal year—that is for the six months later that the accounts now being given out—as compared with the corresponding period of the year before."

Endorsement of the Alberta Motor Association's request that automobile license plates be issued March 31 and continue to the same date in the following year, instead of being issued for the calendar year, has been given by the Calgary Probus Club, it was announced Wednesday.

The Alberta Motor Association has adopted this suggestion, and the matter has been placed in the hands of Edmonton directors to be submitted to the provincial government.

A. B. Mackay, provincial president, stated Wednesday that it was felt that license issued at this time would provide a benefit to the government and to the motorists, at the same time.

With license fees confronting them at the first of the year, in addition to other financial obligations, many motorists allow their cars to stand idle for the balance of the winter, said Mr. Mackay.

If license fees became payable March 31, he said, motorists would continue using their automobiles, and would continue to use gasoline and pay tax, supplying the government with revenue otherwise lost.

Wednesday's announcement said that the Probus Club had supported the stand by an unanimous vote. The question will be further discussed at the annual provincial convention of the A.M.A. to be held in Calgary December 3.

SOURED ON THE WORLD — THAT'S LIVER

Wake up your Liver Bile

— No Calomel necessary

Many people feel sour, sluggish and tired, and many more feel the taste of salt, or mineral water, as a tonic, chewing gum, or rouge-like which only more stimulates the body.

What you need is to wake up your liver bile. You can do this by taking 1/2 pounds of liquid bile into your bowels. Get those 1/2 pounds of bile working as they should, and more.

Carey's Little Liver Pill will soon do you. Purely natural. Take one. Order. Ask for them by name. Return substitutes. $1.00.

Has Become Proficient In Chinese Language

McGill Student Learned At Laundry To Talk Fluently

If everyone persevered as much as Gordon R. Taylor, of Ottawa, the Chinese laundry business would be revolutionized into the teaching profession.

When Taylor, now entering upon his M.A. studies at McGill University, was nine years old his father sent him to the laundry to get the inevitable two dollars and one shirt. Immediately intrigued by the sing-song language he heard there he decided first to make friends with the Chinese, his later instructors in their language. This accomplished he over a period of years, "exhausted" the knowledge of his instructors and was turned over an old Chinese teacher.

Armed with his knowledge, Taylor strolled into the office of Dr. Kiang Kang-hu, professor of Chinese studies at McGill University, and went into a flood of Cantonese which left that gasping. A graduate of Queen's University, Taylor speaks, writes and reads the southern China dialect.

He hopes to go to China some day.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON NOVEMBER 27

STEWARDSHIP OF LIFE

Golden Text: "First they gave their own selves to the Lord." 2 Corinthians 8:5.

Lesson: Exodus 3:1-12; Isaiah 6:1.

8; Matthew 25:1-6; Mark 1:16-20; Acts 12:16-19; 1 Corin. 9:17-27.

Devotional Reading: Matthew 6:28-34.

Explanations and Comments:
Four Disciples Called To Fellowship
And To Service. Mark 1:16-20. We find that the four who were the Sea of Galilee saw Jesus the two brothers, Peter and Andrew, casting a net in the sea, letting it down and then lifting it up, first on one side and then on the other for they were fishermen. The successful use of this net, W. M. Thompson explains, requires a keen eye, an active frame and great skill and strength. The fishermen were also patient, watchful, and prompt in seizing the exact moment to throw. These were qualities needed by fishermen of men, and Jesus called to them: "Come ye after Me, and I will make you to become fishers of men."

It is unlikely that the disciples understood at the time all that this phrase, filled as it is with meaning, was to an itinerant one. He went about from place to place teaching and preaching and healing. The nature of His work made the fellowship of the four fishermen necessary. He had many things to say that only trained hearers could fathom, many things to do that only loyal pupils could undertake, a legacy of knowledge that had to be passed on to others that they could carry out. At once the four left their nets and followed Him.

Paul Called To Dedicate His Life To Christ's Work. Acts 26:12-19-21. Paul was sent to persecute the Christians that Paul saw a light brighter than that of the sun and heard a voice saying, "Saul, Saul, why persecute Me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks." Paul is ready in the position of a plough-ox. Jesus is his driver and holds the goad. Paul can no more resist Jesus than that the plough can resist the driver.

"Remember that the heavenly visitor comes to you in very humble and everyday forms. Not in visions of grandeur, nor in flashes of light, but in the skies. It comes in the simple guise of duty: the thing which you ought to do today, and which you know that you ought to do. That is the heavenly visitor that you are to give up that sin, you are to undertake that bit of work for others, you are to break from certain habits and companionships. That is what the visitor is to do for you."

"Keep of the grass," said the youngster.

The Most Familiar
A teacher had been telling an infant's class about the Ten Commandments. In order to test their memories, she asked: "Can anyone give me a commandment containing only four words?"

A hand was raised immediately.

"Well?" said the teacher.

"Keep of the grass," said the youngster.

More mothers each year.. check Colds

Being an external treatment, Vick's is especially appreciated by mothers because it avoids the constant "dosing" which so often disturbs children's delicate digestion.

2 WAYS at once!

More and more mothers every year turn to the double action of Vick's VapoRub in checking colds, coughs, sore throat and spasmodic cough.

Rubbed on throat and chest at bedtime, Vick's acts through the skin like a plaster. At the same time, its medicated vapors, released by the heat of the body, are inhaled direct to the air-passages.

This double action of Vick's breaks up congestion and eases breathing, thus preventing the night coughs which so often rob both mother and child of restful sleep.

CHAPTER I.

The Killers

Father Claverly, leaning against the rail of the "Midnight Sun," suddenly straightened up, stiff with shock; and stared incredulously at the six men.

For moments he could not believe it—he was actually witnessing a robbery.

Here in this Canadian Northland where outlaws were rare and furtive, here on the mighty Mackenzie where river boats to and again carried unguarded cargoes of half a million in furs and gold, a brazen daylight attack upon a big steamer was simply unthinkable.

A few minutes ago the six men in a pair of birch-bark canoes had skirted out of the tributary river, the Big Aloska, and haled the steamer as though they were merely trappers or a trading party wanting passage up south. A ladder was innocently let down for them, and they had come aboard, taking a despicable advantage of the friendly, accomodating spirit extended from man to man in this North country.

over those rifles, for the muzzles swerved aside from him.

"Don't shoot again," he bade quietly, as one with authority. "You have killed a man. You have murdered."

The dark-faced bandit who had fired the shot flinched before that steady accusing gaze, and turned his eyes away from Father Claverly's.

"I was compel' to kill him. He should not try to interfere wit' us."

Father Claverly scorned so dimly a justification of a brutal killing. Turning away from the bandits, he faced the crowd. Steady, clear, his voice rose:

"Men! Don't stir! Don't make a shambles of this deck. There's nothing aboard this boat as precious as the lives that would be lost. Let them take what they want and go peacefully."

His appeal fell on deaf ears. A slow vengeful wrath was gathering. Jimmy Montgomery, known and loved all along the Mackenzie, lay murdered on the deck. . . . Those killers were going to pay for that barbarous crime.

The snarling oaths rose again; the muttering swelled audibly; hands crept down and closed upon belt-guns.

It was the bandit leader who stopped the rush, who stopped it dead short at one stroke. Swinging his gun at a young schoolmistress, Margaret Fournier, one of the passengers, he ordered her, "Step up here, sister;

He Cocked His Weapon With an Audible Snick and Pointed It at Her Breast.

Step up close," and when she obeyed him, wild-eyed with terror, he cocked his weapon with an audible snick and pointed it at her breast.

His voice rose so that the whole deck heard:

"Now shoot! You can't git me afore I'n git her! First move I see made with a gun, I'll give her what that gent there on the boards just got!"

Without turning or swerving his rifle from the girl, he bade two of his men:

"Audre, you and John go below. Git the dust. Sort out some furs, too, good furs, six or seven hundred pounds—marten, mink, dark fox. You know what's light and valuable."

The two bandits stepped down and seized one of the crew and made him take them down the companionway. Coming up presently, they lowered their boat into the two birchbark canoes that bobbed against the side of the steamer.

that the bandits held the whip-hand, that no one dared stir, that retribution must come from elsewhere, a whisper started, spontaneously, from a dozen points at once:

"Baker! Alan Baker! Sergt. Alan Baker!"

This whisper went from neighbor to neighbor, from group to group; and men smiled grimly as they heard this mere mention of a man's name:

"Baker! Sergt. Alan Baker—at Fort Endurance."

Another of the bandits protested by that rifle pointing at Margaret Fournier's breast, walked boldly out among the passengers, shouting a fire ax, he went from boat to boat on deck, smashing their frail sides so that there could be no pursuit, no retribution, if the two canoes could only get out of rifle range of the steamer.

Seeing now that the threat to Margaret Fournier's life had checked all thought of a rush, Father Claverly walked toward the stack of wolfskins, crossing himself as he stepped over the dark stream of blood that trickled slowly toward a scupper. Bending, he picked up the little Montgomery girl, who was looking with wide, uncomprehending eyes at the body of her father. Mercifully taking her away from there, he walked over to the rail, holding the little tot so that she could not look back.

The man beside him said in a low voice: "Look at that devil smashing the boats! They must have planned that 'caution' afoot, so we couldn't chase 'em. But don't that big red-bearded devil know we'll be splattering their canoes before they get ten rods gone?" —G—Q!—what we'll do to them six!

The whisper spread. . . . "Wait! Wait! They start away. . . . Men roared their arms, and watched quietly, biding their moment of vengeance.

And then, when the canoes were loaded with their booty, the red-bearded leader played his last and best card. Flipping his gun at Margaret Fournier, he ordered her:

"Get down into one of them canoes, sister. We're going to carry you a couple miles up this Big Aloska river and set you off on a car, see? We ain't making to harm you, see? Just start making over and climbing down into a boat. . . . That's right; that's a sensible girl. . . ."

He raised his voice so that every one could hear; he spoke to Margaret Fournier, but his words were intended for the men aboard:

"Some of the fellows is figuring to shoot h—l out of us afore we can git clean gone, see? But they'd better think twice about that. And I guess they will. First hunk of lead comes whistling over, you'll git a bullet square 'em them pretty eyes, sister!"

All usefulness and all comfort can be prevented by an unkind, crabbed temper of mind, a mind that can bear with no difference of opinion or temperament. A constant irritability, an unsatisfied temper, will more than neutralize all the good you can do, and render life anything but a blessing. You have not fulfilled every duty unless you have fulfilled that of being pleasant. —Albert Barnes.

The sensible way—the doctor's way—of treating that sluggish, "run-down" condition is to use Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Try it instead of something just to "move the bowels." Get the genuine; look for Phillips' on the wrapper.

Mrs. Ernie Russell, of Calgary, was a visitor here during the week with her mother, Mrs. H. Gibeau.

Charles Sartoris claims he had no connection whatever with the teachers in convention at Lethbridge two weeks ago.

A very successful whist drive and dance was held under the auspices of the Crowley Rebekah Lodge in the hotel hall on Thursday night last.

As we go to press, Bill Johnson expects good news from Calgary. He says: "Prospects are bright."

FLASH (two minutes after going to press, Mountain Time, 3:15 1/2) — A baby daughter. Congratulations!

The annual bazaar, held in the Columbus hall last evening under auspices of the C.W.L., was well attended, considering the quiet times. The tombola draw will take place during a dance being held in the hall tonight.

Fernie teachers voluntarily donated ten per cent of their salaries to the city, to assist it in its financial struggle. These teachers took a cut of fifteen per cent in September, and this makes twenty-five per cent from their salaries.

A large congregation turned out Sunday night to hear Rev. W. H. Irwin at the United church. Mr. Irwin delivered a forceful discourse, dealing largely with the doings of the recent conference, held at Hamilton, and the programme of the church in general.

A very pleasant social evening was spent in the Lodge hall last night by the members of Greenhill Temple of Pythian Sisters and Livingstone Lodge K. of P. Fifteen hands of whilst were played, followed by luncheon and a programme of speeches, music and dancing.

A few business people and private citizens or organizations last year regretted that they were not represented in the greeting pages of The Enterprise Christmas number. Do not be disappointed this year. The opportunity is yours, and the paper will appear on December the 22nd, larger and better than ever.

The new government snow plough arrived here on Saturday last, and is located west of Coleman ready for operation. The new plough is one of the government's latest and most improved road cleaning devices, and is expected to fully combat the snow elements in this district and keep the through highway open to Crows' Nest. It is understood that a similar device will be brought into commission on the British Columbia side of the mountains.

The public are being canvassed right now for funds to provide a Christmas treat for miners' kiddies. No objection is raised against this fact, but it is to be hoped that not a cent be spent on useless toys. Money is needed today to feed and clothe many of the adults and children. Let the money be spent on the needy, which cannot be said of a Christmas treat, through which just as much benefit will be derived by the well-to-do. It has been suggested that funds that can be collected be invested in hampers for the most needy.

The members of the Wolf Cub drum and bugle band, under the leadership of Ed. Royle, were guests on Monday afternoon, right after school, of Mrs. Tom G. Allen at her residence, to a weenie and corn roast supper, supplemented by pie, cake, tarts and candies. After a splendid repast, the guests loaded up to the limit till no more could be put out of sight, an hour's good fun was had in singing, jokes, violin solos and bingo. Three cheers were accorded the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Royle in dispensing the good things. Present were: Buglers Dicky Morgan, Douglas Lord, Malcolm Blake, Jackie Whitehead, Drummer Besser Wilson was unavoidably absent through illness.

Gus Gustason, formerly of Cole- man, has been chosen captain of the Drumheller Miners hockey team.

The members of Greenhill Temple Pythian Sisters, will hold their annual sale of sewing, home cooking etc., in the Lodge hall on the afternoon of Saturday, December 3, from 3 to 6. Tea will be served. [027 to d1]

J. C. Adams, of Kimberley, faces charges of stabbing a youth who had attempted to damage his property by way of a Hallowe'en prank. Adams is said to have tried by all means, without using weapons, to frustrate the boy's plans. He has been released on bail of $1,000 to appear for trial on November 28th.

D. A. E. SHORE, of Drs. Gunn, Hackney & Shore, Calgary, will be at the office of Dr. Stewart, Blairmore, on Friday, after 1 p.m., November 25th. Anyone wishing to consult him with regard to Eye, Ear, Nose or Throat conditions, or to be fitted with glasses, please make appointment with Dr. Stewart.

People of the Crows' Nest Pass who feel they are justified in getting their wedding stationery printed at Eaton's in Winnipeg, should also go to that city for the wedding ceremony, for we understand the preachers there are scrapping on our western clerics to the extent of about twenty-five cents on a guaranteed jo.

At the regular meeting of the local town council on Monday night, a deputation from the unemployed appeared to ask for action in connection with relief work and a supply of food and clothing for the needy. They were advised that the committee appointed were working on a scheme, but had not yet reported. The request of the deputation that representatives of the newly appointed provincial relief commission be asked to come to Blairmore at once for a conference, was granted. The suggestion also that the town council press the necessity of building the proposed new road over the Frank Slide at this time, and also to discourage the idea of young men being taken outside the town limits on relief work and required to live in tents. It was felt by the deputation that with a satisfactory living wage for relief work, they would be satisfied if provision were made for transportation to and from work. Considerable kick was also made about the order on ration system in use, the deputation feeling that for his honest work an order or scrip might be issued that could be turned in at any store for necessities, without being subjected to the dictates of police. The council promised to go on record as agreeing with the deputation in this regard.
